1. Purpose

The purpose of this statement is to define and encourage best practice, and to guide our compliance with the Equality Act 2010.

2. Policy Statement

City Academy Norwich believes that diversity is natural and equality is right and that equality, diversity and inclusion are everyone's responsibility. City Academy Norwich intends to lead by example on equality and diversity by being pro-active, practical and positive.

We promote equality because we know it's the right thing to do.

Research shows that more equal societies are better for everyone (www.theequalitytrust.org.uk). Equality is about being valued for who and what we are. This helps us to achieve our best without unfair obstacles, stigma or stereotyping, or being restricted by anyone's expectations of our ability.

In practice, equality means three things for all of us:

- Being able get to, into and around our sites, and complete the learning journey, with equal ease and dignity
- Having a sense of belonging and well-being
- Feeling the place, the programmes and the policies have been designed with us all in mind

We value diversity because it makes our organisations more creative places to learn and work. We celebrate the fact that our students and staff, are from different social and ethnic backgrounds; women, men and transgender; black and white; of all ages, cultures and faiths; lesbian, gay, bi-sexual and straight; disabled and non-disabled; from nearby and further afield.

We know that diverse teams make better decisions, and diverse classrooms produce richer learning. Diverse groups are much more likely to be more in tune with reality.

In practice, this means:

- Seeing and hearing people like ourselves around, as learners and staff, so that our organisations mirror the diversity of society
- Listening to different points of view to improve how we run the place
- Valuing our differences as well as the things we have in common
